"WILDCATS" DEFEAT FLAGSTAFF BATTERY "A"

on the theory that Tommy was a right field hitter. But Hayes was as wise as the Flagstaff bunch for he knocked a screaming hit over third base and well into left field. When the smoke cleared, Robinson and Price had scored and Hayes was resting comfortably on third. TWO OUT, FOUR RUNS AND A MAN ON THIRD. Knorr up, and as usual, Louie can hit, when a hit is most necessary, so he loosened a dandy double scoring Hayes. MacMillan went out on a grounder to second, and the inning was over. It was a glorious session and put Howard up among the Flagstaff clouds. His passport to the showers was signed, sealed and delivered.

Mr. May, the lad who made us hungry at Flagstaff was called to the rescue, and he kept the Wildcats very tame for the three innings he faced them. May is a real pitcher.

Smith got into a bad hole in the eighth, for there were Flagstaff runs perched on first and third with one out. The runner on first naturally believed he could steal second standing up, but the strong arm of Price cut him off in his youth. A run was scored on the play, but the bases were cleared, and all danger passed.

Flagstaff could make no impression on Smith in the ninth inning, and they went out, one, two, three.

The scores of the last two games the Wildcats have played have demonstrated the value of one run. Our opponents are now well practiced in the game, and the season of big scores was over. To win, we must play better ball than the other fellow, and not depend on our hitting ability alone. The swat-fest time is gone, and the era of errorless baseball must commence.

After the game, the casket containing the last remains of "Flagstaff's Hopes" was escorted about preceded by the Kingman Band, and followed by innumerable happy mourners. Although all hope had failed, our "Wildcat" still perched upon the coffin lest someone should perchance attempt to resuscitate the lifeless remains. This was a funeral that was enjoyed by all.

Battery "A" has a fast team made up of good fellows. With practically no supporting fans from their home town, they played as good a game of ball as any team that has visited Kingman this year. They took their defeat gracefully as did the Kingman team when they took the count at Flagstaff.

That they seemed well satisfied with playing ball on the Kingman grounds was evidenced by the fact that they expressed the wish that they would like to play the deciding game here. The next game is scheduled for August 15 at Flagstaff.

To-morrow we meet the Williams boys again on the local diamond.

The games with Williams now stand one and one and much interest is manifest in the outcome of to-morrow's contest. There is one thing sure and that is that the game will be well worth seeing.

Following is the box score for last Sunday's game:

LITTLEFIELD

The 3rd cutting of hay is now in the stack.

Watermelons and grapes are ripe. They certainly are fine.

Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Hardurch, Mrs. W. Erwin, Misses Vera and Zona Reber went to St. George, Utah to have some dental work done.

It looks like rain today; have had some rain the last few days and it has left the weather cooler. It has been nice and cool the last week.

VISITS THE BIG CITIES

George A. Bonelli is home from a month's trip throughout the west, southwest and south, where he looked after important business. In his swift around the circle he took in Denver, Kansas City, Chicago, St. Louis, Memphis, Galveston, and New Orleans, besides many other places of less consequence.

Mr. Bonelli is getting his new pipe making apparatus on the market and is meeting with considerable success.

Our United States Senators

HELP make the laws that secure reclamation of arid lands, development of western resources and promote the GENERAL WELFARE of the State of Arizona.

Hon. John W. Norton

STOCKMAN FARMER STATESMAN

knows the needs of our people. He is a democrat, in full sympathy with the national platform and stands for "the greatest good for the greatest number."

He seeks the nomination for United States Senator for Arizona, before the democratic primaries, September 7, 1920.

He will make good if chosen to lead the ticket. A vote for John W. Norton is a boost for a GREATER ARIZONA.
